

Contact Us

About BBC World

How To Receive

Hotels Airlines Ships

BBC Links

Terms & Conditions

BBC WORLD

29 March 2005

TV Listings Highlights News Headlines Business Headlines Sport Headlines Global Weather

This Week

- ▶ Home
- ▶ Hostage
- ▶ Face
- ▶ Little Terrorist
- ▶ The Ring 2
- ▶ Milk & Honey
- ▶ Competition
- ▶ Latest Reviews
- ▶ Latest Trailers
- Regulars
- ▶ Archive
- ▶ Site Help
- ▶ Site Credits
- ▶ Contact Us
- ▶ See the show
- ▶ Streaming Media

Hello I'm Tom Brook

Welcome to the Talking Movies website

This week, as Bruce Willis turns 50 he tries his hand at a new kind of action hero movie, the Little short film that could, a sequel to a remake that's different to the original sequel to the original original, the concept of 'tweeny' movies explained, a very odd night in NYC, and a special Competition!

An art-house 'Die Hard', a painful flop, or a pretty straightforward thriller? We give our verdict on 'Hostage'.

Naomi Watts teams up with the Japanese director of the original 'Ringu' for the sequel to the American remake, 'The Ring'.

'Face', a tale of cross-generational cultural assimilation, has had a long journey from Sundance success to cinemas.

'Milk & Honey' tells the tale of two lost souls on one night in New York City, and examines the things that keep couples together.

Enter our first competition to win CDs of the soundtrack to 'The Ring 2', plus torches and special movie T-Shirts!

'Little Terrorist' is a short film from India that has managed to secure a proper cinema release. We speak to its ambitious director.

HOTELS at Super Rates

We put you to bed!

- 150.000 Hotels worldwide
- Each hotel and price category
- Pay at the hotel

1st Prize - HRS Business Traveller Award 2004

www.hrs.com

This week's viewer vote:

Can Bruce Willis escape action movies?

- No, he'll be trapped in 'Die Hard' hell forever
- Yes, his comedies are funny
- Is he still making movies? Wow, who knew!

Submit

Talking Movies can be seen on BBC World TV at the following times (GMT):

- Tuesday ti20:30
- Thursday 16:30 (not South Asia)
- Friday tttt01:30 | 08:30 | 13:30
- Saturday t21:30

The BBC is not responsible for the content of any external sites linked to from BBCWorld.com.

Town

Hotel - Search